

ACT OF COMMITMENT The Revd Tim Watts

Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and our fellow men and women; that we may help, encourage, and comfort others, and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

Then (all say together)

Lord God our Father, we pledge ourselves to serve you and all humankind in the cause of peace, for the relief of want and suffering and for the praise of your name. Guide us by your Spirit; give us wisdom; give us courage; give us hope; and keep us faithful now and always. Amen

THE LORD'S PRAYER Led by The Revd Tim Watts

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven, Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses; as we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory. For ever and ever. Amen

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

G od save our gracious King	Thy choicest gifts in store
Long live our noble King	On him be pleased to pour
God save the King!	Long may he reign
Send him victorious	May he defend our laws
Happy and glorious	And ever give us cause
Long to reign over us	To sing with heart and voice
God save the King	God save the King

BLESSING The Very Revd. John S Richardson

HYMN Introduced by The Very Revd. John S Richardson

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast
And our eternal home;

Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient in thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight
are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

INTRODUCTION The Very Revd. John S Richardson

We meet in the presence of God. We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace. We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

THE EXHORTATION

Lt Col. Ryan Castro RE

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them
We will remember them.

HYMN Introduced by The Very Revd. John S Richardson

I vow to thee my country, all earthly things above
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love;
The love that asks no questions, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.
